The vision God gave Mark Virkler concerning Washington D.C. which healed anger and fear

It occurred during Mark's morning journaling time as he asked God to show him His heavenly perspective and how HE saw Washington D.C. It was a life-changing experience!

I looked in my mind's eye at Washington D.C. and all I saw was corruption, lack of integrity and ineptness. It made me angry and it made me fearful: Angry because no one would stand up and do the right thing, and fearful because their terrible spending habits could destroy the entire economy.

I realized that anger and fear were not proper fruit in my life, so I decided to journal about this in my morning devotions. I asked Jesus to show up in the picture of Washington I was seeing with my spiritual eyes. What I was viewing did not have Jesus in it, so it obviously was a lie since Jesus is everywhere, and because it was a lie, it was producing some pretty ugly emotions.

I put a smile on my face, relaxed, and asked Jesus to show me where He was in the scene. Into my heart flowed a picture of Jesus seated on a throne above Congress and the White House. His long white robes were flowing down over Congress and the White House, and His glory was streaming down over the buildings and those who lived and worked in them.

He spoke, "I rule in Washington D.C."

Well, of course He does. He is King of kings and Lord of lords. And yes, I sure don't know why He puts certain people over us, but the Roman government was far worse than our government, and yet Jesus was clear that they had no power other than what God granted them.

So Pilate said to Him, "Do You not know that I have authority to release You, and I have authority to crucify You?" Jesus answered, "You would have no authority over Me, unless it had been given you from above" (Jn. 19:10-11).

I said, "Yes, but God, they are removing You from all institutions in America!"

God reminds me of His reaction in Scripture to the identical situation...

Why are the nations in an uproar and the peoples devising a vain thing? The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers take counsel together against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying, "Let us tear their fetters apart and cast away their cords from us!" (Ps. 2:1-3)

The nations in David's day were also attempting to remove God from their lives – throw off His moral restraints so they would have no cords to bind them, and they could do anything they pleased.

Well, God wasn't too concerned about their puny efforts...

He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; Jehovah shall mock at them. Then He shall speak to them in His anger, and trouble them in His wrath. (Ps. 2:4-5)

You know, if God can laugh, then I can, too. Laughter is so much better than getting all down in the dumps, fearful, angry and depressed. So guess what? I have decided to laugh and set aside my fear, anger and depression, and I highly recommend you do so, too. It is healing to your whole body, and a testimony to your belief that the Most High rules (Dan. 4:17)!

I can also ask for the nations to become the Lord's, which I do.

Ask of Me, and I shall give the nations for Your inheritance; and the uttermost parts of the earth for Your possession. (Ps. 2:8)

Church, let's rise up with a victory shout and declare the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof (Ps. 24:1)!

His government or of peace!
(Isaiah 9:7 NASB)

My morning devotion was an inner healing experience.

Inner healing defined: Allowing God to replace the pictures in the art gallery of your mind, removing pictures that do not have Jesus in them and replacing them with pictures that do.
